

Exercise: Creating the Category and Product Entities

In this exercise, you'll practice defining entities with relationships by creating the Category and Product entities to map to the corresponding database tables.

- Create a new Flyway migration for creating the following tables:

- Define two new entities (Category and Product) and map those to the corresponding tables.

